1. Unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing AgriMin Control International (hereinafter called “the Company”) undertakes services in accordance with the general conditions (hereinafter called “General Conditions”) and accordingly all offers or tenders of service are made subject to these General Conditions. All resulting contract, agreements or other arrangements will in all respects be governed by these General Conditions, except only to the extent that the law of the place where such arrangements or contract are made or carried out shall preclude any of the General Conditions and in such case such local law shall prevail wherever, but only to the extent that, it is at variance with these General Conditions.
2. The Company is an enterprise engaged in the trade of inspection and testing. As such it:
 - 2.1. Carries out such standard services as we referred to in General Condition 6.
 - 2.2. Renders advisory and special services as may agreed by the Company and as referred to in General Conditions 7.
 - 2.3. Issues reports and/or certificates as referred to in General Condition 8.
3. The Company acts for the persons or bodies from whom the instructions to act have originated (hereinafter called “the Principal”), No other party is entitled to give instructions, particularly on the scope of inspection or delivery of report or certificate, unless so authorized by the Principal and agreed by the Company. The Company will however be deemed irrevocably authorized to deliver at its discretion the report or the certificate to a third party if following instructions by the Principal a promise in this sense had been given to this third party or such a promise implicitly from circumstances, trade custom, usage or practice.
4. The Company will provide services in accordance with:
 - 4.1. The Principal’s specific instructions as confirmed by the Company;
 - 4.2. The terms of the Company’s Standard Order Form and/or Standard Specification Sheet if used;
 - 4.3. Any relevant trade custom, usage or practice;
 - 4.4. Such methods as the Company shall consider appropriate on technical, operational and/or financial grounds.
5.
 - 5.1. All enquiries and orders for the supply of services must be accompanied by sufficient information specification and instructions to enable the Company to evaluate and/or perform the services required.
 - 5.2 Documents reflecting engagements contracted between the Principal and third parties, or third parties’ documents, such as copies of contracts of sale, letter of credit, bills of lading ect., are (if received by the Company) considered to be for information only, without extending or restricting the mission or obligations accepted by the Company.

 - 8.1 Subject to the Principal's instructions as accepted by the Company, the Company will issue reports and certificates of inspection which reflect statements of opinion made with due care within the limitation on instructions received, but the Company is under no obligation to refer to or report upon any facts or circumstances which are outside the specific instructions received.
 - 8.2 Reports or certificates issued following testing or analysis of samples contain the Company's specific opinion on those samples only but not express any opinion upon the bulk from which the samples were drawn. If an opinion on the bulk is requested special arrangements must be made in advance with the Company for the inspection and sampling of the bulk.

9. The Principal will:
 - 9.1 ensure that instructions to the Company and sufficient information are given in due time to enable the required services to be performed effectively;
 - 9.2 procure all necessary access for the Company's representatives to enable the required services to be performed effectively:

- 9.3 supply, if required, any special equipment and personnel necessary for the performance of the required services.
 - 9.4 ensure that all necessary measures are taken for the safety and security of working conditions, sites and installations during the performance of services and will not rely, in this respect, on the Company's advice whether requested or not;
 - 9.5 take all necessary steps to eliminate or remedy any obstructions to or interruptions in the performance of the required services.
 - 9.6 inform the Company in advance of any known hazards or dangers, actual or potential, associated with any order or samples or testing including, for example, presence or risk of radiation, toxic or noxious or explosive elements or materials, environmental pollution or poisons:
 - 9.7 fully exercise all its rights and discharge all its liabilities under any related contract whether or not a report or certificate has been issued by the Company failing which the Company shall be under no obligation to the Principal.
10. The Company shall be entitled at its discretion to delegate the performance of the whole or any part of the services contracted for with the Principal to any agent or subcontractor.
 11. If the requirements of the Principal necessitate the analysis of samples by the Principal's or by any third party's laboratory, the Company will pass on the result of the analysis but without responsibility for its accuracy. Likewise where the Company is only able to witness an analysis by the Principal's or by any third party's Laboratory, the Company will provide confirmation that the correct sample had been analyzed but will not otherwise be responsible for the accuracy of any analysis result.
 - 12.12.1 The Company undertakes to exercise due care and skill in the performance of its services and accepts responsibility only where such skill and care are not exercised.
 - 12.12.2 The liability of the Company in respect of any claims for loss, damage or expense of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising in respect of any breach of contract and/or any failure to exercise due skill and care by the Company shall in no circumstances exceed a total aggregate sum equal to 10(ten) times the amount of the fee or commission payable in respect of the specific services required under the particular contract with the Company which gives rise to such claims provided however that the company shall have no liability in respect of any claim for indirect or consequential loss including loss of profit and/or loss of future business and/or loss of production and/or cancellation of contracts entered into by the Principal. Where the fee or one of those services the fee or commission shall be apportioned for the purpose of this paragraph by reference to the estimated time involved in the performance of each service.
 - 12.12.3 The limit of liability of the Company under the terms of Condition 12.2 may be increased upon request received by the Company in advance of the performance of the service to such figure as may be agreed upon payment of additional fees equal to an appropriate fraction of the increase in such compensation or as may be agreed upon.
 13. The Principal shall guarantee, hold harmless and indemnify the Company and its offers employees, agents or subcontractors against all claims made by any party for loss, damage or expense or whatsoever nature and howsoever arising relating to the performance, purported
